ATA X DAISY HILL

It has been both an honour and a privilege to collaborate with Daisy on three exquisite classroom collections. Our partnership with Daisy was inspired by a profound desire to embrace and represent Indigenous Australian culture in educational spaces throughout Australia.

We're incredibly grateful to Daisy for her partnership in creating a wide array of educational products. These items have quickly become beloved staples in schools, childcare centres, homes, and offices across the nation, and for that, we are deeply appreciative.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, whose stewardship of this land, both past and present, fills us with gratitude and respect.

Artist Bio:

Daisy Hill is an Aboriginal artist and proud descendant of the Muruwari people from NW NSW, currently living on Yugambeh Country (Gold Coast).

Daisy's art style can be described as modern and contemporary. She has a passion to tell stories and strives to keep the traditions of her people alive.

Instagram @daisy_in_dots

"It is a way for me to feel connected to the Motherland - the trees, water, sand, sun, earth and animals. I paint to convey the beauty I see in all things and to express my gratitude and acknowledge the Country I am walking, living and breathing. I feel so grateful that people want to invest in me and my culture."

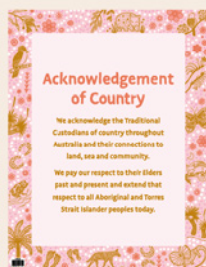

It is important to note that the symbols and stories shared are unique to Daisy Hill and her own interpretations and do not represent all First Nations people. All Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultural groups have different perspectives, interpretations and understandings of stories and knowledge passed down to them.
